

Creating value for tomorrow's world

At KPMG, we pride ourselves not only on the in-depth knowledge of our tax professionals, but also on the ability of our people to think beyond.

By thinking beyond, our people work with you, sharing practical advice tailored to anticipate tomorrow's needs, as well as today's.

Above all, our people think beyond to deliver incisive advice that enables our firms' clients to make and implement business decisions with confidence.

Discover more about what makes us different at www.kpmg.com/tax or by emailing nahopwood@kpmg.com

AUDIT • TAX • ADVISORY

© 2008 KPMG International. KPMG International provides no client services and is a Swiss cooperative with which the independent member firms of the KPMG network are affiliated.

At KPMG Tax, we are looking for talented professionals to join our fast-growing Global Tax practice and help clients respond to cross-border changes in attitudes, regulations and expectations.

KPMG offers a variety of dynamic career openings for ambitious, motivated tax professionals. We give you the opportunity to work across our global network of member firms, in a variety of industries, with clients ranging from entrepreneurial ventures and large public companies, to government and international organizations.

For tax professionals who can think beyond the present, see beyond borders and deliver long-lasting value, there has never been a better time to join our team and maximize your potential.

After all, when it comes to your career, the limits to exceed are the ones you set yourself.

Visit www.kpmg.com/tax today or email globaltaxrecruitment@kpmg.com to learn how KPMG firms can help you exceed your potential in the new world of tax.

Go beyond the expected

AUDIT • TAX • ADVISORY

© 2008 KPMG International. KPMG International provides no client services and is a Swiss cooperative with which the independent member firms of the KPMG network are affiliated.